Lady Tigers win!!!

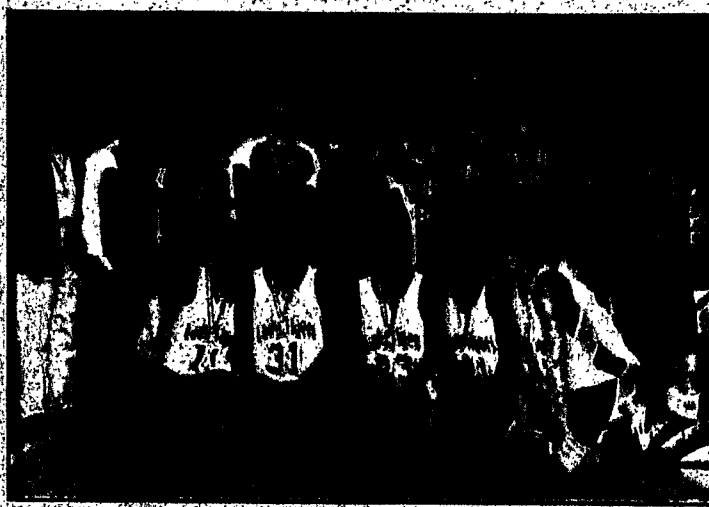

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Victory is sweet! The Bay High Lady Tigers defeated Calloway 53-44 to win the Class 4A state title yesterday for the second time in the past three years. Bay High won the Class 4A state title in 2003 and finished as state runner-up in 1998, 2002 and 2004. At the end of the first quarter Saturday, the Tigers trailed 8-12, but tied the score at 24 by the end of the first half.

Tamara Reed led with 21 points; Kendra Reed scored 12; Destiny Porter 10; Sara Gilmore, 8; and Crystal Streching, 4.

Thousands turned out Saturday afternoon to catch beads, cabbages and carrots during the Waveland Civic Association's St. Patrick's Parade in downtown Waveland. The St. Patrick's celebrations continue today. The Krewe of Blamey's Halfast Walkin' Klub will take to the streets of Pass Christian today, Sunday, March 13 at 2 p.m. The parade will step out from its rendezvous at War Memorial Park on Scenic and Fleitas Streets where the Grand Marshal, his Honor Guard and Tuxedoed VIPs, will precede the bands of merry-makers down Scenic.

Supers reverse ban on strip club

Federal law allows regulation, not ban on sex-oriented business

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

Supervisors overturned a decision made by the Planning and Zoning Commission earlier this month when commissioners voted down an ordinance that would have allowed sexually-oriented businesses in areas of the county zoned C-2 Highway Commercial.

While some of the board members may not morally agree with the idea of such businesses, said board attorney Ronnie Artigues, they realize that they took an oath to uphold state and federal laws as well as local convictions. Federal law recognizes the right of such businesses to exist and it would be unconstitutional for the county to prohibit their existence. Sexually-oriented businesses will be allowed in C-2 areas.

Though the county cannot prohibit sexually-oriented businesses, it has complete authority to reg-

Missing Wisconsin man found dead on Pass beach

Police say drowning death was a suicide

BY JOHN WATERMAN
Staff Writer

An unidentified body washed ashore on Pass Christian

Wednesday morning. Since then, investigators from the Harrison County Sheriff's department have determined that the cause of death was suicide by drowning.

The body was positively identified as David Hildebrant, of 1320, 21st Ave. South in Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.

Hildebrant was listed as a missing person on March 7. The Wisconsin Rapids Police Department listed him as "endangered and suicidal."

An autopsy performed on March 10 determined Hildebrant's cause of death was drowning. The Harrison County Coroner's office ruled it a suicide.

The Pass Christian Police

Department discovered Hildebrant's vehicle, a Mazda pickup truck, in the parking lot of a local business near where he was found.

The Harrison County Sheriff's Department is asking that anyone who may have had any contact with Hildebrant to call 228-865-7060 or 228-896-0678.

They want your blood!

Jerry West of Waveland is one of the first donors in line Wednesday for the American Legion Post 77 Spring Blood Drive, hosted in conjunction with the American Red Cross. On Thursday, March 17, another blood drive will be held in the commons area of Hancock High School from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. The high school is located on Stennis Airport Drive off of Highway 603 in Kiln. This blood drive is open to the community and all blood types are needed. Currently, there is a critical shortage of blood types O Negative and A Negative since both types are at less than a one-day supply. There is only a one-day supply of the most common blood type, O Positive as well as types B Positive and B Negative. To give blood you must be 17 years old or older, weigh at least 110 pounds, have not donated blood in the past 56 days and be in good health. For more information, please call the American Red Cross at 228-896-2217.

Pass city primary scheduled May 3

BY JOHN WATERMAN
Staff Writer

Municipal elections for the city of Pass Christian will take place on June 7, but the primary takes place on May 3. The following individuals have qualified to run, as of last week's deadline.

Incumbent Mayor Billy McDonald, a Republican, faces opposition from Democratic challenger Leon Roberts. McDonald has served as mayor of Pass Christian for 10 years, and was on the Harrison County Board of supervisors for 12 years previously.

McDonald felt the biggest accomplishments of his last term were the privatization of WPSCO, and the reduction of taxes. His administration has also used Tax Increment Financing, or TIF bonds to pave over 30 roads throughout Pass Christian, and to provide other improvements to the city's infrastructure.

"Since I've been in office, we've cut taxes by 17 mills," he said.

Roberts, who served in the Air Force and the Pass Christian Police Department for 13 years, currently works as a licensed practical nurse at the Armed Forces Retirement Home in Gulfport.

Roberts said that if elected, he would facilitate more participation between the mayor, city administration, and the public. He also wants to provide more for the city's public servants.

"They are very devoted people," Roberts said. "They need to be taken care of better too."

Roberts also wants to see stronger economic growth come to Pass Christian.

"I'd like to see if we can recruit some businesses that could help us with our tax bases," he said.

Pass Christian Aldermen are also up for reelection this year.

Alderman-at-Large Leo "Chipper" McDermott and Ward Four Alderman Donald Moore, both Republicans, will run unopposed.

Republicans Walton Pigott, Walter Ketchings and Lou Rizzardi face possibly the most challenging race as they vie for an empty seat in ward one. Howard McKissick, the current Ward One alderman, will not seek reelection, as he felt his recent appointment to a position in the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality would be a conflict of interest with his current duties as alderman.

Joseph Piernas, democrat, incumbent alderman from Ward Two, faces a challenge from democrat Regina Dailey, and newly-elected Ward Three Alderman Anthony "Ba-Ba" Hall, democrat, will run against Philip "Tommy" Piernas, also a democrat.

Bay municipal races heat up

BY JOHN WATERMAN
Staff Writer

Another busy election season is heating up in Bay St. Louis, with Mayor Eddie Favre and three of the five city councilman facing opposition this year.

Favre has been mayor of Bay St. Louis for 16 years. Favre felt the biggest accomplishment of his last term was the national recognition that Bay St. Louis had received, such as hosting the Dixie Girls World Series, and the National League of Cities directors convention.

If reelected, Favre said, he feels the most important issues will be the annexation of the Highway 603 business corridor, and the continuation of the city's capital improvement project, which involves majors repair of the drainage and road systems.

Favre's challenger, Danny Johnson, running as a Republican, could not be reached for comment on Friday.

While incumbent Councilman-at-Large Bill Taylor and Ward Four councilman Bobby Compretta face no opposition, all other incumbents will have to defend their seats, against challengers.

Democrats Doug Seal and Jim Thriffley, from wards one and two respectively, both face Republican challengers. Seal will run against Chris Vial and Thriffley against Gerald Spotorno Jr.

Ward Three Councilman Thomas Farve is the only incumbent who faces a primary challenge. He's in a three-way race with fellow Democrats Connie Payne Lampley and Jeffrey J. Reed.

The primary election is scheduled to take place on May 3, with any necessary primary run-offs scheduled for May 17. The general election is scheduled for June 7.

Alleged repeat offender jailed after cocaine bust in Waveland

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus
The Bay-Waveland Narcotics Task Force arrested Torey Thomas of Waveland on Friday, and he was placed in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility with no bond, according to Waveland Police Chief Jimmy Varnell and Bay Chief Frank McNeil.
"Thomas, 26, who has had at least two previous felony drug convictions, in addition to being out on bond for three previous felony drug charges at the time of his arrest," the report from the Task Force directors said.

On March 11, Thomas was arrested by the Bay-Waveland Task Force for possession of a controlled substance, (cocaine). The arrest was preceded by a traffic violation of a vehicle driven by Thomas by Waveland Officer Todd Blake. He was operating a vehicle with a suspended drivers license," the report stated.
The report continued, "A bag of alleged marijuana was discovered in Thomas' possession and during booking procedures, a bag of cocaine was discovered in his possession hidden between his buttocks," Varnell and McNeil said.

Thomas was out on bond, which was revoked, for the charges of possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, (cocaine), possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, (crack cocaine), and possession of a controlled substance, (Ecstasy, MDMA), in addition he was out on bond for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, the report allowed.

Detective Brent Anderson is handling the investigation and Thomas is facing enhanced charges due to the fact that he has at least two previous felony drug convictions, according to Varnell and McNeil.
Any tips or complaints concerning illegal narcotics, please contact the Bay-Waveland Drug Task Force at 228-467-5681.

A backhoe lies mired on a sandbar just off the Washington St. Pier in Bay St. Louis. The machine, part of the Beach Rejuvenation project, became briefly stuck last week. The backhoe was freed several hours later once additional equipment and manpower arrived. Owner of Southern Dredging Jens Lorenz said that the project, which got underway earlier this week, was first delayed by extremely low tides. Once dredging got underway, the crew had trouble keeping anchors in the soft sand. Now that larger anchors have been brought in, the problems should be over we hope, Lorenz said. Work is still scheduled to be finished on time, by April 30.

ulate them, Artigues said. Zoning must provide a place where they will be allowed, but the governing authority - in this case the board of supervisors - has the right to regulate.
In another vote, supervisors approved the adoption of "An Ordinance Regulating Sexually Oriented Activities in commercial establishments where alcoholic beverages, light wine and beer are sold or consumed within the boundaries of Hancock County."

The ordinance is an extra added supplement to the general ordinance regulating sexually-oriented businesses which was approved in December. It elaborates on the specifics of the regulation of alcohol use and sales and prohibits such use and sales on the premises of sexually-oriented establishments.
For businesses not yet operating in the county, the ordinance will become effective 30 days after its approval; for businesses already operating at the time of its adoption, effective date will be extended to an additional 30 days.

In other business:
• Supervisors passed a resolution accepting the bid and authorizing the execution of a contract with GM&R Construction in the amount of $1,586,893 on the Air Traffic Control Tower project at Stennis International Airport.

Cuevas' Quotes

by Ellis C. Cuevas
Publisher Emeritus

Walk your dog, but clean it up

In our area, many folks have pets such as dogs who become 'members of the family' in many instances.

More and more folks are interested in exercise, as doctors and other health specialists recommend walking as an exercise.

We have a very nice walking path along beach Boulevard from almost the Washington Street American Legion pier in Bay St. Louis to the Garfield Ladner Memorial pier at Terrace Street in Waveland.

Just about any time of the day or night, there are folks using this wonderful exercise path.

Some walk, others jog, some ride bikes or tricycles and mothers push their babies in carriages.

Within the county there are several walking tracks too, such as the one on U.S. Highway 90 in Bay St. Louis and the one at Diamondhead, adjacent to the Country Club and others by playground areas.

Now the gist of what I am getting at is the fact that since the exercise area along the Bay-Waveland beach front has been in operation, I have received numerous complaints about 'man's best friend,' dogs.

I know dogs like to walk with their owners and they need exercise too, but the problem is what they leave behind.

Right on the concrete surface for others to walk around, or - if they are not careful - step in. Apparently the owners have not heard of 'pooper scoopers.' They should carry one along and collect what their dogs leave behind.

Many communities have very strict laws about owners having to collect collecting what their dogs leave behind.

On the other hand, I feel that dog owners are adult enough to take care of the matter themselves without having to have laws passed.

Folks, do not forget the big fund raising benefit for the Boys & Girls Club sponsored by Favre's on the Bayou third annual Mudbug Challenge Crawfish Cook-Off.

As many of you know, the Boys and Girls Club of Hancock County has been doing a tremendous job in our county.

This is a big benefit for the Boys and Girls Club and will take place on Saturday, April 2 at the Hancock County Equine Center, located seven miles north of Exit 20 - Delisle Exit.

In addition to the Cook-Off, there will be a silent auction, $2,500 drawdown and a cow drop. There will also be a bass fishing tournament, barrel racing, bull riding and some great musicians.

Folks may want to plan a day at the festivities and at the same time, help a great organization, the Boys & Girls Club of Hancock County.

Protecting shipyard jobs is important

Do you want foreign workers building America's naval and Coast Guard fleet? Do you want America's security at sea dictated by short-term bureaucratic budget goals, rather than the military's own stated defense needs? Of course not, on both counts. Yet, this is exactly where we're headed. With our nation's 200-year maritime tradition struggling for survival, a bipartisan group in Congress is acting to preserve America's shipbuilding industry.

America's shipbuilding employment has shrunk an alarming 75 percent since the late 1980s, and if Secretary Rumsfeld has his way, America's shipbuilding capacity will be weakened even more dramatically, strengthening foreign competitors, and putting America's security in question.

I'm leading a bipartisan group of Senators who are expressing our concerns with the Secretary's shipbuilding priorities. Specifically, we have asked President Bush to override the Secretary's ill-advised plan to use a "winner-take-all" competition between mine which shipyard will build the next generation of naval destroyers.

A competition for the next generation destroyer program called "DDX" would mean either Ingalls or Bath would no longer build destroyers or cruisers for the Navy, putting thousands of skilled American shipbuilders in unemployment lines. This would seriously deplete America's shipbuilding capacity. If the trend continues unchecked, America may eventually have to ask foreign workers to build our own navy. That would be a sad day for our nation, a sure signal of our seaborne supremacy's demise.

DDX is not just any ship. It's the stealth bomber of ships and even looks like one. It represents an undisputed benchmark in naval design and technology. It will set the standard for all military shipbuilding in the new century. It will mean America remains the pre-eminent naval power for decades, in much the same way HMS Dreadnaught, the first modern battleship, did for Britain 100 years ago.

As our military continues to rely on technology, doing more with less, it's clear that we need to move forward with DDX being constructed at both shipyards, as originally planned. Holding a competition will inevitably delay DDX's acquisition and increase costs to taxpayers. With future naval designs taking their cues from DDX, it's very important that America build this ship efficiently, without delay, as originally scheduled.

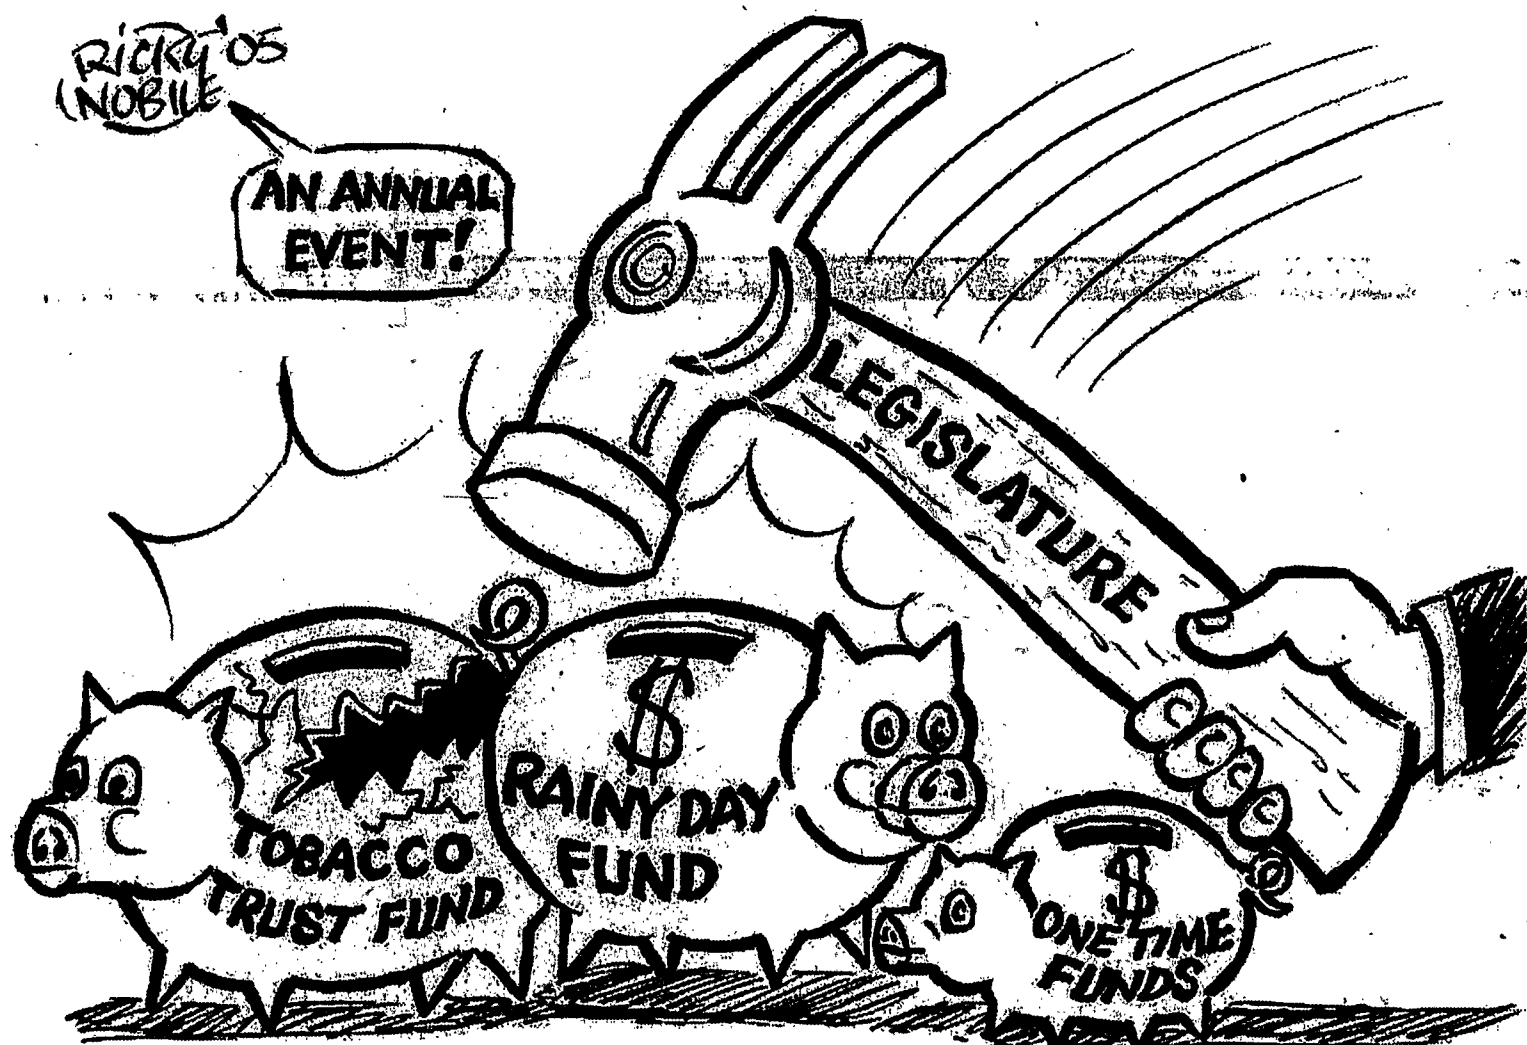

The Secretary is basing his strategy on meeting short-term budget objec-

Letters to the Editor

Waveland residents need answers

Mayor Longo and City Officials:

This letter is in regard to Edna Street and all existing streets in the City of Waveland. It is obvious that our city is growing, but the construction has taken a toll on our street. Although we strongly welcome new development in limits to our community 5 we have plenty of questions of how our tax money will be spent.

We built our home in 2003 and purchased a building permit for $610.00, electrical for $35.00, mechanical for $24.00 and plumbing for $57.00 and paid $376.24 in city tax to you in 2004. Since 2000, Edna Street alone has been issued fourteen permits so if we estimate $350.00 x 14 = $4900 x 4 years = $19,600.

How do the citizens find out about this information and why doesn't the City have a website? Do we have to go to every meeting or can we figure out a way for the people who work full time to get faster answers for our community? Do you have plans to black top Waveland Avenue, Nicholson or Old Spanish Trail before residential streets? Please let me know what your goals are with the tax money from all homes and business in our area? And are we now letting people build on 50' foot lots because we do not have enough tax money for these streets?

Thank you for your time and consideration on this matter,

Edward "Eddie" and Dorothy "Dotsie" Cook

To the editor:

Mississippi is in dire straits financially. The current legislative financial impasses on Medicaid, the economic development arguments, fights over the Tobacco Trust, etc. bear witness to needs and limited resources. Education is also in need of expanded resources if we, as a state, are to continue to develop.

Bush's federal budget, despite overwhelming support in his election, knifes us in the back fiscally. If his budget proposal passes as proposed, it would cost Mississippi approximately $978,700,000 in fiscal cost: Homeland Security at $14.2 million, Medicaid at $679 million, No Child Left Behind at $157.3 million, Pell Grants at $109.2 million, Job Training at $13.8 million, Clean Water at $3.5 million, and Energy Assistance at $1.7 million.

Call Senators Lott and Cochran and insist they represent Mississippi.

Sincerely,
Garry McLain

St. Clare Elementary School students helped Waveland Mayor Tommy Longo place markers on storm water drains Friday as a part of their participation in Marker Madness. On Tuesday and Thursday of last week, children from Hancock County Schools and First Methodist Day Care also joined St. Clare and children all across the coast to work together to promote awareness of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Storm water Phase II Program to manage storm water runoff. Since most storm drains are released directly into local waterways, dumping litter, fertilizer or other toxic substances run off directly into the gulf. In addition to pollution, foreign material in the sewage system can also clog pipes and culverts, and lead to flooding. One aspect of the DMR's Comprehensive Resource Management Plan included a coastwide program of storm drain marking.

A festival will be held to recognize the coast wide volunteers at the J. L. Scott Marine Educational Center on March 19 from 10 a.m.

until 2 p.m. The event will feature fun and educational events focused on water quality issues.

There will be displays, educational posters designed by volunteers and Watershed harmony Puppets for young and old.

The DMR released the following guidelines to help avoid storm water pollution:

- *Never dump anything down storm water drains.
- *Use fertilizer sparingly, and sweep up driveways, sidewalks, and roads.
- *Vegetate bare spots in your yard.
- *Compose your yard waste.
- *Avoid pesticides.
- *Direct downspouts away from paved surfaces.
- *Take your car to the car wash instead of washing it in the driveway.
- *Check car for leaks and recycle motor oil.
- *Pick up after your pet.
- *Have your septic tank pumped and inspected regularly.

If you would like to learn more about storm water runoff and non-point source pollution plan to attend the festival or contact the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources Comprehensive Resource Management Plan at 228-374-5000.

tives rather than America's long-term shipbuilding needs, which have traditionally and rightly been the overriding concern that dictates combat ship acquisition. For instance, having a competition between Bath and Ingalls violates the Navy's own stated ship acquisition needs as outlined in the 2001 Quadrennial Defense Review (QDR). The QDR is basically an assessment of defense requirements done every four years. At the very least, the Pentagon should have waited until the new QDR, now being conducted, is complete and reported to Congress before suggesting a DDX competition.

With only a handful of shipyards left, every shipyard that closes means less shipbuilding capability and higher and higher prices to American taxpayers. We can't ask our military to have a global reach that protects us from terrorists without being the undisputed leader in military ship design and construction. Shipyards can't just close and then reopen. Once they're gone, they're gone, and with them centuries of American seafaring leadership.

This is not a shipyard issue. It's an American issue. Whether we live near the busiest seaport or the greenest inland prairie, America's ability to produce ships impacts us all. It sustains our economy and protects our country. America needs her shipbuilders - always has and always will.

Lutheran children donate horse to Gaits to Success

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The Lutheran Church of the Pines recently donated a horse to Gaits to Success. Funds for the horse were collected from the Vacation Bible School held last summer.

The children adopted two mission projects, one to collect food for the Hancock Food Pantry and the other for Gates To Success. Each day of the Bible School the children brought a mission offering of money and canned goods.

The boys versus the girls spurred lively competition to see who could bring the most. Some days the boys won. Some days the girls. In all, the children collected over $700.00 which was matched by the Lutheran denomination enabling the purchase of Rockie.

Gaits To Success is a non-profit therapeutic riding facility located in Kiln, Hancock County. It serves children who have a variety of disabilities such as partial paralysis, autism, cerebral paralysis and mental retardation.

For children with disabilities, Gaits to Success has been shown to improve muscle tone, balance, posture, coordination, motor development and emotional well being.

The program is open to children age 3 and older. Sessions are designed to fit the individual needs of each rider and are conducted by certified instructors. If a child is new to horseback riding or has a special medical condition, two side-walkers may assist. Touching and grooming the horse play a vital role as well.

The barn is specially designed to the needs of the riders, and safety is the forefront of every lesson. All students wear safety helmets.

Volunteers, instructors and horses all receive special training to help these special students.

The new horse 12 year old trail horse originally from Oklahoma. The average usefulness of a horse is 25 to 30 years, so Rockie has many more years of usefulness. He is a beautiful speckled Appaloosa and has finished his 30 day trial under the supervision of Dr. Patrick Cleveland, the local veterinarian, Dr. Cleveland is one of the many volunteers who devote their services to the Gaits to Success. Another is David Hodges, the farrier (blacksmith). Recently a crew from Kessler Air Base repaired and built new fences.

Rockie is now certified to walk, trot and canter. He is one of four horses used almost every day with the children. Two more horses are in training to become certified.

If you know someone who can benefit from therapeutic horseback riding or if you would like to volunteer or make a tax-deductible donation to Gaits to Success, contact Barbara Kaiser or Carolyn Rhodes at (228) 255-5368.

16th annual Cancer Society's Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off is Apr. 18

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

The 16th annual American Cancer Society's Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off has been set for Monday, April 18, according to Cosponsors.

The Cosponsors for the 2005 benefit are: Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre, Hancock County Tax Collector/Assessor Jimmie Ladner Jr., and Calgon Carbon's Ernie Zimmerman.

The event this year will take place at the Hancock County Civic Center, Longfellow Road, according to Ladner.

Letters have been sent to previous participants and it is hoped to increase the participation to 40, or more this year Ladner reported.

Just as in previous years, "There is a call for good been cooks to come out and enjoy themselves and at the same time help a very worth cause, the American Cancer Society," Mayor Favre said.

There are five categories of competition, which are, government, restaurant, organization, business and family.

More area restaurants are needed in the fund raiser, "Each each restaurant needs to try to out do their competitors," Favre reports.

The group coming from the longest distance in recent years has been the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

Regulars for many years has been Waveland Market Center and Diamondhead Supermarket (Choice Markets). They usually have that great bread pudding too.

Chuck Breath, the earliest entrant this year, and a top cook years ago, said, "I will be cooking 'space beans' this year, and will be after the top award."

Both Favre and Ladner report that they will be cooking this year, (to give others a chance to win), will not be entering the contest, both have been recent winners. There beans will be for takeouts, etc.

An item that goes good with red beans and rice is cornbread.

Once again there will be a cornbread competition with a trophy going for the Best Cornbread.

The Red Beans & Rice Cook-Off American Red Cross benefit was organized by Janet McQueen, Anne Schmidt Andre and Basil Kennedy 16 years ago. McQueen and Andre served as the CO-chairs for several years.

The first Cook-Off was held at Christ Episcopal's Virginia Hall and there were 10 entrants. After out-growing Virginia Hall, the benefit was moved to the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club and out grew those quarters.

The last two years the fund raiser was held at Casino Magic's Entertainment Center.

"The Civic Center is more centrally located and we can hold up to 50 teams," Ladner added.

For further information, contact Favre at 467-9092, Ladner or Sandra Hoda at 467-4425, or Zimmerman at 493-0737.

Toddler story times instill love of reading

The Hancock County Library System hosts preschool story hours September through May for children three to five years of age who are not part of a nursery or preschool group. Programs and activities include storytelling and crafts, and last approximately one half hour, depending upon activity.

The programs meet every Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at the Waveland Public Library; every Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library; and every Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the Kiln Public Library.

Dogs on Parade is the theme for the story hour at the Waveland Public Library on Tuesday, March 15.

Featured books include 101 Dalmatians, Mess Pets and Queenie, One of the Family. Crafts after story-time include making dalmatians and receiving color sheets.

Bunny My Honey is the theme for the children's story hour at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library on Wednesday, March 16.

Susan Daigre, program coordinator, will read Bunny My Honey, Little Bunny Bobbin and Rabbit Moon. Children will receive a color sheet.

Spring Picnic Time is the theme for the story hour at the Kiln Public Library on Thursday, March 17.

We're Going on a Picnic, Picnic Farm and Mouse Family: The Picnic are the books to be read during the program. Children will make a picnic basket.

For individual branch story hour information, contact Jamie Elston, Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library, 467-5282; Sandra Ladner, Kiln Public Library, 255-1724; or Judy Greene, Waveland Public Library, 467-9240.

Bay undefeated in division

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
Staff Writer

Two old rivals squared off at the Brother Philip Memorial Athletic Complex on Friday night. It was Bay High vs St. Stanislaus on the high school diamond. The Tigers (3-6, 3-0) continued their winning ways in the division with a 9-4 decision over the Rocks (6-5, 0-3). The win for the Tigers also marked the first victory for Bay High over SSC in a varsity sport this school year.

SSC head coach Mark Logan stated, "Bay High executed better than we did tonight. They made the routine plays and we did not. Every time they got something going, it began with our mistake. We battled hard for a while but just couldn't get it done."

The Tigers jumped out on the Rocks 3-0 in the first inning highlighted by David Buckley's second pitch solo dinger and Cory Jordan's 2-run single.

The Rocks answered with a run in the bottom of the first when Lee Klein crushed an RBI double to leftfield with two outs.

The Tigers roared again in the third inning when Colby Adam and Steven Thebeau both had RBI singles to score Trevor Adam and Jordan to make the score 5-1.

The Rocks added runs in the bottom of the third and fourth innings. Chase Klempeter hit a fly ball to rightfield that was misplayed to get on base. Brooks Breland had an RBI sacrifice to make the score 5-2. Brennan Thomas drove a run in to make the score 5-3 in the fourth inning.

Bay High made the score 7-3 in the sixth inning when they loaded the bases on two hit batters and a walk. Colby Adam collected an RBI with a walk for the Tigers in the inning.

In the seventh inning, two more batters were put on base for Bay High after being hit by pitches. Trevor Adam and Kyle Sick both had RBIs in the inning to make the score 9-3.

SSC added their last run of the game in the seventh inning when BJ Ladner led off with a double followed by an infield hit by Brennan Thomas. Klempeter got an RBI on a fielder's choice that made the final mark for SSC.

Bay High head coach Mike Weems commented, "We knew that this would be a tough game for us to win and that we had to play extremely well. We came out swinging the bat and putting the ball in play. On defense, we received a solid pitching effort and made the routine play. St. Stanislaus battled very hard and pushed us. Mark Logan and Stace McRaney have done a tremendous job with the Rocks. They know the game of baseball and care for their players. SSC is only getting better under them."

The Rocks entertain D'Iberville on Wednesday while Bay High tangles with Pass Christian on Tuesday night.

In other recent action Bay High (2-6, 2-0) defeated Gautier 9-0 on Wednesday, March 9th at the Fred Weems Athletic Complex. Trevor Adam was the winning pitcher and went the distance for a complete game allowing just four hits against the Gators.

Adam helped his own cause as he hit a triple in the game.

In girls' softball, Pass Christian defeated Gautier 4-1 behind the pitching of Amber Epperson.

Bay High's Sara Gilmore, a senior pitcher/outfielder, was chosen to the Mississippi Association of Coaches All-Star South squad in fast-pitch softball.

Gilmore and the rest of the South team will take on the North squad on June 25th at 12 noon at Newton County High School.

Remember Me

Remember me when flowers bloom
Early in the spring
Remember me on sunny days
In the fun that summer brings

Remember me in the fall
As you walk through the leaves of gold
And in the wintertime - remember me
In the stories that are told

But most of all remember
Each day - right from the start
I will be forever near

Bay St. Louis Rotary at work

Members of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club adopted the walking track on Highway 90, Bay St., Louis, in front of Hancock Medical Center for its beautification project. The club planted numerous trees, complete with identification markers around the track Saturday, March 5.

Darlene Underwood was committee chairperson of the event.

Dr. Kim Stazney and Steve Benvenutti plant a tree as part of the beautification project of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club.

Michael Reeves pours another bucket of water into the concrete mix for a marker to identify an existing tree.

Lamb promoted at Stennis

Pearlington resident Marjorie "Marge" Lamb feels very fortunate to live and work in a community she loves. Thanks to a program offered by the Naval Oceanographic Office (NAVOCEANO) at Stennis Space Center, Lamb has managed to do just that.

A native of New Orleans, LA, Lamb moved to Hancock County and began working at NAVOCEANO in 1980 as a clerk typist in the oceanographic library. Today, Lamb's exciting job takes her across continents boarding Navy survey ships.

"I would not have had the opportunity to advance to where I am now without NAVOCEANO's Upward Mobility Program," said Lamb, now working in NAVOCEANO's Contracting and Logistics Services Division.

Through the Upward Mobility Program at NAVOCEANO, employees who had the potential and eagerness to learn but who did not possess the requirements for a position were trained for a specific career field by the Office.

Lamb entered the Upward Mobility Program in 1988 training for the position of Supply Clerk. She is now a Supply Systems Analyst who also serves as a member of the Quality Improvement Visit (QIV) Team where she is responsible for logistics.

The team visits NAVOCEANO's seven ships while they are in port around the world to ensure established guidelines and processes are followed. Lamb is responsible for material requisitioning, storerooms, bar-coded equipment and shipping and receiving processes while on board. Lamb says she really enjoys getting away from a desk and interacting with shipriders.

"I am also very proud of what we all do in support of the warfighter," she said. "We are their lifeline. Many people don't realize how much our servicemen and women at sea depend on the people at NAVOCEANO to provide them critical information to keep them safe during their mission. That makes it all worthwhile."

When she is at the office, Lamb oversees logistics processes, as well as systems and database administration. One of her most enjoyable projects was working on the development of an inventory management and requisitioning system. Right now, she is diligently working on Navy/Marine Corps Intranet issues within her department in preparation for NAVOCEANO's transition to the initiative.

In her spare time, Lamb is an avid gardener and enjoys being outdoors bicycling and walking. She and husband Shannon have one daughter, Angelle, who recently graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with a degree in computer science. Angelle plans to enter graduate school in the fall and is currently working as student intern at NAVOCEANO.

Moles, Bedding Plants and Butterflies

BY DR. WAYNE WELLS
and DR. DAVID NAGEL

Has your lawn been intruded upon by some mysterious creature causing irregular, snake-like raised ridges of soil throughout the lawn and into the flowerbeds?

Most likely a common Eastern mole has inhabited your lawn. Moles are small furry critters described having "beak-like" noses, tiny rudimentary eyes, no visible ears, paddle-like front feet with large claws and with stubby, hairless tails. The ridge in the lawn is caused by their shallow tunneling in search of food which is mainly a diet of earthworms, beetles, grubs, and other insect larvae. While they rarely feed on plant material their tunneling can cause damage to the roots of turf, bulbs, etc.

In controlling moles just remember the reason they are there is because they are finding something to eat and if the food is not there then they will soon leave. Trapping is still the homeowners most cost-effective and safest method of removing moles if you do not want to harm your beneficial earthworms. However, trapping requires some skill, a lot of patience, and general knowledge of mole habits. A harpoon trap can be purchased from most any garden center.

Early spring is usually the best time of year to trap since the moles are active very close to the soil surface and the soil is cool and moist. Not all tunnels are traveled regularly so it is important to find the main daily run. This is accomplished by simply making a step on the tunnels to firm the soil back down and checking each morning to find which one is used daily then set the trap on that tunnel. I have heard that moles have a keen sense of smell for human scent as well as insects so it is important to keep the trap clean and maybe an earthworm or two below the trap may help. If you are not successful after a couple of mornings reset the trap in another location.

There is a product called "mole gel bait" with the active ingredient being warfarin that is packaged similar to a caulking tube that you can inject the gel into the tunnel and as the mole

Cancer put the brakes on his life in the fast lane, but Frank Thayer says life is now better than ever

BY BENNIE
SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

It took a blow to the head, literally, to wake Frank Thayer up to the fact that his life was fast going in the wrong direction. To a casual observer, Thayer probably looked like he had it all: A beautiful house on a lake in Georgia, a fast car, a fast motorcycle, and a fast plane were just some of the things he had accumulated on his way up the ladder of success.

Of course, he had had to leave a few things behind too, his marriage and family life among other things. When you are living the highlife, Thayer said, there is room for little else but yourself.

"It was all about me," he said. "I thought I was something else, and I loved speed, going fast."

Thayer's love of the fast life caught up with him in his Pitt's Special, a plane he was using for aerobatics training. Mechanical difficulties brought the plane crashing down to earth, and Frank with it.

A broken back kept him in the hospital for many months. Therapy to regain normal movement took more months, but Thayer's plummet to the bottom was not complete yet. He had lost most of the material possessions he had spent so much time and energy accumulating, and he would soon find himself over a million dollars in debt for medical bills.

"When it is all going out and nothing is coming in it doesn't take long for it all to go away," he said.

But just when he thought he would be all right, doctors discovered a tumor behind one of his eyes. He had lost his father and other family members to cancer and his first instinct, he said, was to climb on the pity pot. Then he thought of the children he had seen at St. Jude's hospital, which he had supported in better times.

He thought of a good friend who had lost a child to leukemia. Thayer realized he had already lived a good life and decided that if it was his time to go, so be it, he would go with a positive attitude. Luckily, the tumor was contained and able to be removed. Chemotherapy completed the treatment, leaving him alive, but with damaged sight. He would never be able to recover his pilot's license.

Thayer was alive, but completely broke. The fare to check out a job offer in Tampa, Florida depleted the last of his funds. He found himself on the street, right beside the same people he had been so quick to judge, when he saw them out of the window of his Porsche. Police officers escorted the Vietnam veteran and purple heart winner to the Salvation Army.

"I used to be quick to judge people I'd see on the street with a pack or hang-

Thayer got a rare opportunity, he said, to see how the "other side" lives. The experience, he says, has left him a better man.

ing out," said Thayer. "Now I began to realize that there are many circumstances that bring people to where they are. I got to see how the other half lives-boy I had thought I was it-but I got humble real quick." It really came down to him, he said, when he found himself standing early one morning in a soup kitchen line that looked like it was a half a mile long. "I had never seen anything like it," Thayer said. "I prayed for strength and told myself that things could be worse-at least I had my health back."

With his time in the hospital and his time spent homeless, Thayer had a lot of time for reflection, he said. He realized that he had always believed that God had a purpose for his life, and that acquiring material possessions was not the purpose he intended. Thayer spent the better part of a year working odd jobs as a bar tender, a waiter and other jobs requiring manual labor.

He didn't get much of a

Math-A-Thon to Raise Funds for St. Jude

Coast Episcopal School will hold a Math-A-Thon to benefit St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. The event, scheduled to begin Monday, March 14, is being coordinated by Kerryn Liebkemann. By supporting the participants of the event, you will help St. Jude in its ongoing fight against childhood catastrophic diseases.

"Our goal in holding the Math-A-Thon is to help the children of the world who are stricken with diseases like cancer, AIDS, and sickle cell disease. St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is a world leader in the fight against these diseases, and they have made great progress, but only because of the help of people like the citizens of the Gulf Coast," said Kerryn Liebkemann. "We are asking that all citizens and businesses of the Gulf Coast support our students as they participate in the program. Any person or business that would like to make a donation may call the school at 452-9442. We really need everyone's help."

The Math-A-Thon is sponsored by Six Flags Theme Parks. St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is internationally recognized for its pioneering work in finding cures and saving children with cancer and other catastrophic diseases. Founded by late entertainer Danny Thomas and based in Memphis, TN, St. Jude freely shares its discoveries with scientific and medical communities around the world. No family ever pays for treatments not covered by insurance, and families without insurance are never asked to pay. St. Jude's is financially supported by ALSAC, its fund-raising organization.

HHS DECA attends state conference

THE SEA COAST ECHO
The Hancock Vo-Tech Center's Lodging and Hospitality Distributive Education Club of America (DECA) had an impressive showing at the Mississippi DECA Career Development Conference held February 23-25 in Jackson.

With over 650 students from across Mississippi competing in various events, Hancock High's DECA had eight state finalists. Taking top honors were: Stephanie Gibson - 1st Place in Food Marketing Research Event; Kayla Summers - 1st Place in Entrepreneurship Written Event; Miranda Rutherford - 2nd Place in Business Services Marketing; Kristen Brewer and Brittny Bostick - 2nd Place in Hospitality Team Event; Kelsey Morris and Kelsey Ratcliff - 4th Place in Public Relations Chapter Event; and Ashley Dickinson - 6th Place in Fashion Merchandising Promotion Plan.

Also competing were Allison Young - Apparel and Accessories Management Level; Synthia Peck - Full Service Restaurant; Jena Adams - Retail Merchandising Associate Level; Callie Harriel - Technical Marketing Representative; and Jessica Burch - Retail Merchandising Management Level. While attending the conference as voting delegates, Linda Rodriguez and Julie Flores, along with other delegates from across the state, elected the 05-06 State Office Team and voted on constitutional amendments.

During the two days of competition, students in competency and team events completed a 100-question test that evaluated the student's general knowledge in human relations, marketing, management, entrepreneurship, and industry specific skills. These students also participated in a role-play that involved not only problem solving and decision-making, but also presentation of those ideas to a judge. Prior to the actual conference, students competing in a written event researched and wrote a business promotional plan.

ference who evaluated the written manual and the student's explanation of the planned promotion.

Two DECA members, Stephanie Gibson and Kayla Summers, will advance in competition to the International DECA Career Development Conference in Anaheim.

California, on April 26-May 27. This will be Gibson's third year to qualify to represent Hancock High and Mississippi at the highest level of DECA competition. The sponsor of the Hancock DECA organization is Hancock-Vo-Tech-Lodging and Hospitality instructor Lady Bruce.

Guard ation Reson

minutes into the search, Wallace and his fellow rescuers were in their boat, men deflated to the water, James and Clinton climbed the beach and tried to drag the man's body onto shore. They had two hours of search, smashed against the beach, and a 10-foot, 100-pound, manacle-covered man, and repeatedly surfaced by the waves and strong current, Wallace refused to let go and try and swim for help. At 7:45 p.m., James and Clinton managed to get the attention of a passing Gulfport Ship Channel pilot who picked them up. The pilot then notified the Coast Guard, which immediately launched a search for the missing father. Crews searched throughout the night, and at about 9:15 a.m., Keppler spotted Jeff in the Cat Island Channel. The Coast Guard rescue jet crew relayed Wallace's location to the rescue helicopter crew who immediately maneuvered into a position to pick him up. Rice entered the water and assisted the exhausted survivor into the basket. Slavinski then hoisted Wallace into the safety of the aircraft. Wallace was then transported to awaiting EMS.

Each year, the Coast Guard Foundation recognizes an individual active-duty Coast Guardsman or a group of Coast Guardsmen from the Eighth Coast Guard District who has performed an outstanding and dynamic act during the calendar year.

Williamson named Teen Miss MS Coast

Sasha Williamson of Bay St. Louis was named Teen Miss Mississippi Coast and will advance to compete in the Miss Mississippi Outstanding Teen Pageant July 14-16 in Vicksburg.

Williamson, 17, is the daughter of Robert and Sabrina Williamson and the granddaughter of Don and Mayvalan Hudson. She is a senior at Hancock High School and plans to attend the University of Mississippi upon graduation.

She is an active member of the Beta Club, Key Club, Mu Alpha Theta, SADD/Frontline, FBLA, and Spanish Honor Society. She is a writer and photographer for the school's yearbook and a member of the school news team.

The first annual Miss Mississippi Outstanding Teen Pageant is sponsored by the Miss America Organization and the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

For more information on how to sponsor Sasha, please contact executive director Reagan Melancon-Abney at missmississippi-coast@yahoo.com.

PRCC dance team wins national title

The String of Pearls were awarded the 2005 College Division National Champions for the highest overall score in the college division last month in the American All-Star United States Dance/Drill Team Championship in New Orleans. The University of Louisiana at Monroe placed second and Jones Jr. College placed third. Earlier this year, the Pearls won the American All-Star College Division at the Mississippi state competition in Jackson. This is the third National title for the String of Pearls since the spring competition team's inception in 2001, and have won the overall championship at every competition they have entered. Archie Rawls is director of the String of Pearls and Kara Fleming is the coach/choreographer. Team members include from left: Front row - Lella Fortenberry of Oak Grove, Brittany Bynum of Picayune, Whitney Williams of Picayune, Julie Morse of Picayune, Chastity McEmore of Picayune, and Melinda Dittman of Diamondhead. Back row - Ashley Harper of Picayune, Gabrielle Lewis of Picayune, Rikki Hegwood of Picayune, Katie Seal of Picayune, Captain Sarah McLaney of Carriere, Jennifer Jacques of Picayune, Shira Stubbs of Picayune and Elizabeth Raligan of Poplarville.

God wants His people to be "people of joy," filled with the spirit of happiness and pleased to be called His children. The dictionary defines joy as gladness, delight, a state of happiness; it also describes being filled with joy as "joyful." Although this is what our Heavenly Father wants for His family, we know that in this world there are many unpleasant things that can distract us from always being joyful. Everyone encounters difficulties in life, and no one is exempt from the problems of the world. Therefore, our closeness with God is vital to living a joyful life, and like any good relationship, it needs love and nurturing. Building our relationship with God on a daily basis will make our joy more complete and help us to face the problems in our lives. In the Bible, St. Paul tells us that he was satisfied and content with whatever state he was in, and that he had the strength to face all conditions by the power that Christ gave him (Philippians 4:11-13). Regularly attending services at our place of worship, praying and reading the scriptures, will help make us better children of God and will draw us closer to His abundant love and joy.

May all who come to you be glad and joyful.
— Good News Bible Psalm 70:4

How we see ourselves!

Trailing two other children, the 2-year-old boy moved toward the giant mirror on the wall of St. Augustine Hall. The closer he got, the more hesitant his steps became, until he stared himself full in the face from his feet to the top of his head.

A piercing scream yanked the heads of everyone in the hall. Very quickly, there followed another blood-curdling scream. As the boy dropped his trembling hands, it soon became apparent that he was terrified at his very own reflection in the mirror.

Scream followed upon scream, each time escalating in decibels and fright, until he was frozen in place, unable to bear the sight of himself, yet unable to tear himself away and run from the awful spectacle. His modified bush's halo did not seem to help the situation.

Had it not been for the bigger children who began to pull him away from the scene, there is no telling how long the screaming boy would have stood frozen, transfixed by his own image in the mirror. One can only conclude that the child had never before come face to face with the full-length vision of his body in a mirror. He found it devastating.

Even as he was dragged away by the other children, he kept his eyes fixed on the awful spectacle in the mirror. He could neither bear the sight of it, nor could he find the strength to tear himself away from the terrible vision. Finally, he stopped screaming only after the other children had turned him completely around, away from the mirror. It is extremely curious how one can go through almost a full lifetime before witnessing a scene like the one of the 2-year-old encountering himself for the first time in a mirror. It was certainly a first for me, and I found it hard to believe the child was so terrified.

Psychologists, and even we laypersons in the mix, could have a field day going over the numerous relations, possibilities, nuances, ramifications and analyses of what was actually going on in the head of the small boy as he encountered himself face to face.

We can admit that the main difference between the child and adults is that children do not varnish and disguise what they see, whereas, the more most adults age, the more they become masters of disguise, claiming to see only what they want to see.

On the other hand, there are those plucky adults who become more balanced as they live their lives, gradually learning to accept themselves as they are, warts and all.

These are the fortunate people who no longer have to lie to the mirror, scream in terror and run as far away as they can from the hair-raising confrontation with themselves.

Milton Martin, a parishioner of St. Augustine Church, fits that description very well. His sister Cathy had told me about Milton's second amputation which made him a double amputee. Promising that I would visit him in the V.A., I called to locate him.

"God knows where he is!" the receptionist answered.

"Mr. Martin is always all over the place except in his room!"

So I figured I would have to rely on sheer luck as I made my way to the Veterans Administration.

At the desk, I was given the same vague information about Milton's whereabouts. Even after going to the section where he was, no one knew exactly where he was. The main guess was that he was somewhere outside the building.

Finally, someone told me he was in the community room. And so he was, but the sight was rare to say the least. Here was that double amputee rolled up to the giant TV screen, jamming away with the Blues Brothers movie. He snapped to attention with a grin.

Prepared for the worst, I was pleasantly shocked at the improbable spectacle which greeted me. Milton's face lit up as I approached him, and with a look of glee he turned his wheelchair on a dime and rolled toward me, his hand extended in greeting.

There was a lot of conversation and a heap of laughing going on from that moment. If being a double amputee was putting a damper on Milton's attitude, demeanor, words and movements, you would have a hard time finding any signs of such a damper.

A fellow patient at the V.A. walked up and fell into a spirited, spicy discussion with Milton.

The conversation ranged far and wide from politics to religion, at times becoming a bit spicier than one might desire. In any case, this was no ordinary double amputee.

Milton and I passed a few observations about the Blues Brothers movie which was still in progress on the big TV screen. Then, as if he could not wait to tell it, he quickly launched off into an account of his talks with fellow patients about going to church.

"I always ask them if they are going to church. If they are not going to church, I tell them they have to go to somebody's church, because that is what God wants."

"I keep after them all the time until they are willing to respond favorably. I feel this is God's will for me to roll around the whole floor making contacts with all the patients."

Milton leaves no doubt that he has looked at himself in the mirror, confirmed that he is a double amputee and a person afflicted with a number of disorders, and nevertheless had no problem with his image, did not scream in fright, but accepted himself as he is.

In the course of our lives, we encounter many Miltons who, despite all their defects and deficiencies, stare themselves down in the mirror and, without putting on airs or any deception, admit to themselves and to the world that they are who and what they are.

Most people do not scream from sheer terror at their reflection in the mirror, but, short of screaming, they engage in a mystifying variety of veneering, disguising, rejecting and outright denying that what they see has very much to do with the realities of their lives.

"What you see is what you get," is the straightforward and tough lesson of all seasons of confrontation such as Advent, Lent or church mission/revival times. This means that infinitely more important than our face in the mirror is our deepest innermost person.

That deepest innermost person is what we all seek to find and strive to perfect in the image of him who is the reflection of the eternal Father and the light of the world.

Reflections on Life

by Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

Proper stewardship: A matter of faith

Sooner or later, each of us who has professed Christ as his Savior and who tries to live the Christian life must come to terms with a number of "do's and don'ts" or "cans and can-nots" of the faith. One of these is the matter of the stewardship of our earnings.

At the time in our church year when we are asked to subscribe to a new budget, this matter is given special attention.

We are Baptists, one of the truly autonomous bodies. We are completely self-governed. Every member has an equal voice. We believe in the priesthood of the believer, where each one of us can go directly to God in prayer.

We are guided only by the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit. The Baptist church is a great institution, supported not by dues or assessments, but through faith and through free will love offerings.

Now, in coming to grips with this matter of stewardship, the first thing I had to overcome was my observation of the prosperity and possessions of the heathen and the back-sliding Christian.

We look around and we wonder. Here is old Joe, or it may be Dick or Harry, it could be anyone. He does not go to church, but he has a good job, a pretty wife, healthy children, a fine home, two cars, a boat, nice clothes, and vacation trips. So we think, "Why should I deprive myself? Why not be like Joe, Dick, or Harry?"

God's Apprentice

By Perry Gipson

I came to peace on this question with this reasoning: In Matthew 5:45, it says, "...for He makes the sun shine on the evil and on the good and sends rain on the just and the unjust."

God just does not place any limits on the possessions man can accumulate. He can gather according to his desires and abilities. Why, some of the finest temples in the world were erected to heathen gods!

Man's free will can carry him a long way down the road he chooses to travel on the earth. But, without fail, he will face the toll gate at the end.

There must be some infinitely greater reason for a Christian to tithe. It is love, love for God and love for our fellow man. As Christians, we need to set our priorities straight.

Do you love your children? Of course you do. And you want the best for them, don't you? What is the best? Is it...money? fame? power? prestige?

Because I love my children. I would like to know that I have given them the chance to learn about Christ to the point of accepting Him as their Lord and Savior. This is the single most important and most lasting thing a parent can give his child. I would like for them to associate good health habits moral character with Christianity. Finally, I would like their education to be such as to enable them to be useful, productive, and honest citizens.

To me, this is better than an inherited fortune. An inherited fortune is something they could blow, with which they could blow their lives in the process.

The gospel of Christ must be spread through our children and financed through the tithes and offerings of believers. Christian parent have a great responsibility in this matter of the stewardship of our time and talents in rearing our children.

I believe a Christian gets no good from that part of the tithe he withholds from God's work. My experience has taught me that something always turns up: bad investments, foolish purchases, strange sicknesses, or premature wearouts. There is always something unexpected to take that little bit of extra cash. There really seems to be a miracle in the fact that the ninety percent will stretch and do the work of the one hundred percent. I cannot explain this, but it is scriptural. Listen to the stewardship testimony for this simple statement that is usually made: "Things just seem to go better. There seems to be enough to go around."

We pay our income tax. We pay it because we are red-blooded, loyal Americans. It is more than just fear of the Internal Revenue Service. Is our belief in the powers of our government greater than our belief in God's holy word? If this Christianity is only a myth, then why give anything at all? Just Keep it all.

Now, poor stewardship is not exactly like some other sins. With a slip of the tongue, one can lie; on impulse, one can steal; on sight, one can covet; and by chance, one might commit adultery. In temper, one might murder, but the withholding of God's tithe is premeditated. Is this possibly a symptom of the disease of unbelief, the unforgivable sin?

I do not pretend to understand much about President Reagan's "Star Wars" project. But since the Soviets are so much against it, I feel it must be a good thing for us.

I feel the same way about Christian stewardship. Since the devil fights so hard within us to keep us from doing what we know we should do, then I think that scriptural stewardship is a very important thing for all Christians to consider.

I trust you have done some thinking on this subject also.

crawls through it he gets the gel on his face and feet which he attempts to lick off and ultimately is poisoned. Caution must be taken though since warfarin is an anti-coagulant (the same as in rat poison) and other animals such as cats and dogs may also dig it up. Another bait type product that has appeal is one that is shaped, textured, and even smells and taste similar to earthworms. You simply make a small hole into the tunnel and drop one of these earthworm type baits into the tunnel.

BEDDING PLANTS

It is getting close to the official start of Spring and bedding plants are starting to fill the aisles of garden centers. After you have planned which plants will go where in your garden it is time to get the best quality, healthiest plants to put into the soil. One simple question you can ask will help better the chances of your plant surviving: When are the plants delivered to the garden center? Most garden centers do a good job of maintaining the plants once they are off loaded, but the conditions the plants experience at the retail outlet are different from the greenhouse in which they were grown. It takes energy and time for the plants to adapt to the new conditions and quality seldom improves in a retail setting. Buying the plants the same day they arrive from the grower will eliminate the energy demands of the plant adapting to the retail outlet and then having to adapt to your growing conditions. Buying on the day of arrival also means you will have the broadest selection of plants available.

BUTTERFLIES

It has been warm enough for butterflies and moths to be flitting about. Although many of the adults are beautiful to observe, their larvae are caterpillars. The larvae of the black swallowtail preferentially feed on dill and parsley, and the adult cabbage looper is a pretty white butterfly. People who enjoy observing butterflies should plant a butterfly garden following the suggestions in Information Sheet 1661 available at the local Extension Office. Folks who want to eat their cabbage and dill should use a B.T. insecticide following label directions.

Be sure to get out and enjoy the annual spring flowers. Forsythia, pear trees, Japanese magnolia, and other spring flowering woody plants are and have been providing a welcome splash of color. Jonquils and daffodils are in bloom throughout the entire state and can often reveal where old homesteads were. Redbuds and maples are beginning their annual show. Even if you are just a "fly by at 55" viewer, take a look at the free display.

chance to use his Master's degree in business that year. When people found out he was living at the Salvation Army, that put most job offers on the back burner. But eventually a trucking company decided to give him a break and hired him as a manager. Thayer began to slowly make his way back up, but with a different outlook. He had learned a lot about life and the help that others need. Though he had generously donated money to charities, he had never truly understood the need until his own experience with it, he said.

Now working as a sales representative at a local trucking company, Thayer devotes a large portion of his time to raising money for the National Cancer Society, and reminding those he comes into contact with not to be too quick to judge the circumstances of others.

Thayer is now involved in the campaign to raise funds for the yearly Relay For Life, which will be held at the Hancock Medical Center on May 6 from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. The event will feature entertainment, a live band, refreshments, an opening reception for area cancer survivors, and of course, people walking or running to raise funds for research.

There are never too many sponsors, Thayer says, and Relay is always looking for more. He is especially looking for businesses who would be interested in sponsoring a team or teams to walk at the Relay. All proceed go to fund research on treatment and prevention of cancer.

"So many people want to help, but don't know what to do," said Thayer. "This is an excellent way. It is hard to relate sometime when it is not at your house-we all tend to push it to the side but when it hits your house you go from second gear to first gear and say I want to help-so why not just go to first gear now."

For more information on the Relay for Life call 228-896-8936.

St. Rose

held a parish Forum in February 2003. The question, "Where would you like to see St. Rose in 2005?", drew an overwhelming desire for a Community Life Center that could be used for Church Functions and Community programs. The atmosphere at St. Rose is one of outreach to the entire community of the Bay-Waveland area and beyond, where all people are received with love to celebrate and worship together. Diversity is its strength as people of different cultures, backgrounds and races meet to praise and worship God.

The resulting Capital

Campaign has secured pledges and contributions to raise funds for this project. With pledges, fundraisers and contributions, St. Rose is now ready to break ground on this project.

The new construction will incorporate a Prayer Walk located near the entrance to the Center. Two statues that are original to the former convent house grounds will be placed on either side of the walk. The Center is scheduled for completion in December 2005, and offers an exciting opportunity for commemorative giving. This Prayer Walk will provide an eternal place of prayer and reflection surrounded by lovely gardens and seating areas. The handsome bricks used on the walkway will be engraved with contributor's name, a beloved family name, or corporate name as a permanent and everlasting tribute. Bricks are offered for purchase for $50 each. In addition, there will be large flagstones that will gracefully surround and elevate the statuary for $500 each. Through community participation, the prayer walk will be a permanent part of St. Rose de Lima's history and future.

OLA's Asper named National Merit Commended Student

Jennifer Asper, a senior at Our Lady Academy, has been named a Commended Student in the 2005 National Merit Scholarship Program.

A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), which conducts the program, will be presented to Asper by Sister Jackie Howard, OLA Principal.

About 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Commended Students placed among the top five percent of more than one million students who entered the 2005 competition by taking the 2003 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Asper, daughter of Lindell and Vernon Asper of Diamondhead, is also a Presidential Scholar

Program Nominee. The United States Presidential Scholars Program was established in 1964, by Executive Order of the President, to recognize and honor some of our Nation's most distinguished graduating high school seniors. Asper is a six-year Alpha Honor Roll student taking five AP/Honors Classes.

Earlier this year, Asper was nominated by OLA for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award. She attended Mississippi Governor's School in the summer of 2004 and was chosen the Pepsi Student of the month from her class in the 10th and 11th grades.

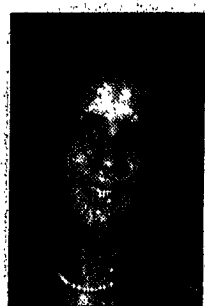

Vice-president of OLA's Msgr. Martin Maloney Chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS), Asper is also a member of the Spanish Honor Society and the Quiz Bowl Team. She served as treasurer of the NHS last year.

Asper has been a member of the Varsity Cross Country Team and Varsity Track Team since the seventh grade. In Cross Country, she made All-State (top 14 in state) five times and was the 3A State Champion in 2003. In Track, she was a four-time state qualifier and a two-time state champion in the 1600m and 3200m in 2004.

A co-founder of the Crescent Running Club, Asper is the current president, having served as vice-president for both her sophomore and junior years. She has also been the team captain in both Cross Country and Track for the last two years.

Asper is a member of the Word of Faith Christian Fellowship Church and belongs to the Youth Group and volunteers as a nursery worker. She has also volunteered her services in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, the University of Southern Mississippi library move, and OLA's Southern Association (SACS) Accreditation.

Anka brings five decades of hits to Casino Magic BSL

THE SEA COAST ECHO
Paul Anka brings five decades of musical magic to Casino Magic Bay St. Louis on Friday and Saturday, March 25 & 26 at 9 p.m. Tickets are $34.95, $39.95 and $44.95 and may be purchased at the Casino Magic Box Office, by calling 1-800-5-MAGIC-5 or at any Ticketmaster location.

Beginning his career by entering amateur contests and sneaking into clubs, Paul Anka has gone on to become one of the greatest songwriters in history. He has achieved unprecedented success in every venue: stage, screen, television, and recording. His songs are internationally known and have been recorded by the greatest names in the entertainment industry.

Since the inception of his career, Anka's songs have been performed well over 90 million times worldwide; and his LP and single sales collectively number more than 42 million. With well over 900 songs to his credit, Anka's most memorable are "Put Your Head On My Shoulder," "My Way," "Puppy Love," and the famous theme from "The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson."

Paul Anka

Anka's contributions to the entertainment industry have earned him numerous awards and special recognition. Recently, the National Academy of Popular Music elected Anka into The Songwriter's Hall of Fame.

His versatility in songwriting is best demonstrated in his most beloved song "My Way."

It has been recorded not only by the likes of Elvis

Presley, but also, Sid Vicious, and most notably, Frank Sinatra, whom the song was written for. The list of performers recording Anka's songs is an honor role of some of the most talented artists of all time: Sinatra, Presley, Barbara Streisand, Buddy Holly, Tom Jones and the Doobie Brothers.

Anka launched his career at the age of sixteen with "Diana," and sales totaled over 20 million copies worldwide. Before he turned 18, Anka had five Top 20 hits and became a household name with songs like "You Are My Destiny," "Lonely Boy," and "Puppy Love." In the 70s, Anka ushered in another wave of chart-topping hits: "(You're) Having my Baby," "I Don't Like to Sleep Alone," and "One-Man Woman." His success continues today with the release of new albums and touring across the nation and on the international stage.

Don't miss Paul Anka at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis, Friday and Saturday, March 25 & 26! Must be at least 21 to attend.

BSLLT presents 'Dark Deeds'

THE SEA COAST ECHO

"Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present 'Dark Deeds' at Swan's Place or Never Trust a Tattooed Sailor," a tongue-in-cheek melodrama, written by Tim Kelly. BSLLT dedicates these performances to the memory of actor-director Teddy Stechmann, who always wanted to present a melodrama.

Set in the Old West during the 'Gold Rush' the story is loaded with laughs and comic delight, seedy jokes and escapist entertainment.

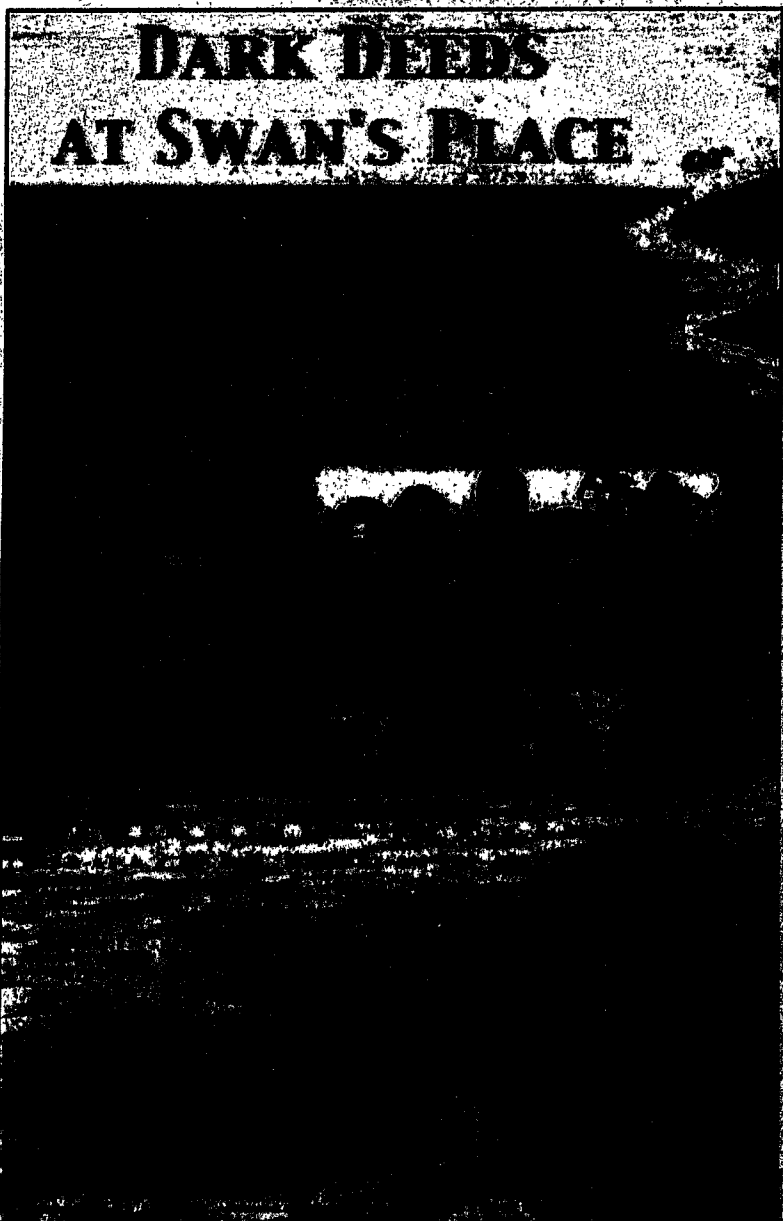

The villain and his henchwoman make a tidy profit shanghaiing young lads to ships that sail from California to the China Seas.

They operate from a disreputable tavern owned by a grizzled prospector, who dies and wills the tavern to an innocent niece, an orphan. The villain must get rid of the damsel. Enter an English sailor with a love for the theatre. He offers the niece his protection and the hilarity goes into high gear.

Soldiers, widows, society matrons, cowboys, mysterious figures, and a crusty sea captain collide to make the mirth even merrier.

Performances on March 18, 19, 25, 26 at 8PM and March 20th, 2005 at 2PM at the John F. Holmes Playhouse, 301 Boardman Avenue, Bay St. Louis.

'Dark Deeds' is directed by Larry Clark, assistant director Roxanne McCabe, with an ensemble cast including Jack Schornick, Glenda Schornick, Kathy

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will present "Dark Deeds at Swan's Place" beginning March 18.

Mauffray, Lex Mauffray, Chris Flynn, Cheryl Grace, Libba Tallant, Sandy Reese, and newcomers to BSLLT, Annette Allard as the orphan heroine, Ken Wesley as the Englishman hero, Deborah Goudeau, Belle Penrose, Stephen Dardar, Bob Davis and more!

Tickets will be available

Family Best Bets

Sunday

9:15 a.m. on HBO

Movie: Looney Tunes: Back in Action

Live-action stars Brendan Fraser and Jenna Elfman interact with the famous animated crew in this 2003 family adventure. When Daffy Duck hooks up with a fired stuntman (Fraser) and goes missing, Bugs and a studio executive (Elfman) are hot on their trail. Steve Martin, Heather Locklear and Joan Cusack co-star with Jeff Gordon, Ron Perlman and Matthew Lillard providing cameos.

7 p.m. on FAM

Movie: Madeline

Ludwig Bemelmans' charming illustrations lose almost nothing in the translation to live action in this 1998 adaptation of his children's books. Newcomer Hatty Jones plays the spunky French orphan who helps save her school from being sold and her next-door neighbor, the Spanish ambassador's son, from kidnappers.

Frances McDormand and Nigel Hawthorne also star.

7 p.m. and TBS

Movie: The Truman Show

Forget those caught-on-tape police chases, tornadoes and animal attacks, not to mention "Survivor." Truman Burbank's life is the mother of all reality shows. His hometown is a set, his loved ones are actors, and he hasn't a clue. One of his "co-stars," however, thinks it's time he found out, much to the producers' chagrin. A pleasantly toned-down Jim Carrey stars in this delightfully subversive 1998 comedy-drama, which earned three Oscar nominations.

Wednesday

7 a.m. and USA

Movie: The Phantom

Lee Falk's classic comic strip inspired this 1996 adventure, starring Billy Zane as the jungle hero who travels to New York. He attempts to stop a power-crazed villain (Treat Williams) from obtaining artifacts that will let him control the world. Kristy Swanson plays the feisty love interest, and Catherine Zeta-Jones also stars.

2:45 p.m. and AMC

Movie: Young Frankenstein

Gene Wilder stars as Dr. Frankenstein's grandson, who wants nothing to do with the old man's work until he visits the ancestral home in Transylvania. Soon he's caught up in the legend and creating a monster of his own. Cloris Leachman, Madeline Kahn, Teri Garr and Marty Feldman also star in the comedy classic, with Peter Boyle as young Frankenstein's monster.

7 p.m. on FAM

Movie: Little Giants

Two brothers, ex-jock Kevin and mild-mannered Danny (Ed O'Neill, Rick Moranis), take their sibling rivalry to the athletic field when Danny's daughter falls to make the youth football team her uncle coaches. Danny starts his own squad of misfits, whose dream is to take on Kevin's hotshots and win. Real NFL stars, including Emmitt Smith, make cameo appearances in this 1994 comedy.

TV Trivia

NASCAR Racing

After a week off, the boys of NASCAR's Nextel Cup Series get back to business at Las Vegas Motor Speedway for the running of the UAW-Daimler Chrysler 400. Two consecutive victories in this 267-lapper make Matt Kenseth the odds-on favorite to drive into Victory Lane again. If not Kenseth, then Sin City bettors will like the chances of Kasey Kahne, who's finished second the past two years, and had a series-high five second-place finishes in his rookie 2004 season.

5 p.m. on 4-CBS

NCAA Basketball Championship Selection Show

The last conference champion has been decided and the 65 teams are in. So grab a pen and paper—or better yet, start recording—and get a copy of the bracket for the NCAA men's basketball tournament that commences Thursday. Beginning with the top seeds in each region—the East, Midwest, Southeast and West—host Greg Gumbel announces each matchup. Providing analysis are Jim Nantz and Billy Packer from the Big Ten championship in Chicago.

7 p.m. and TBS

Movie: The Truman Show

Manic comic Jim Carrey gave fans and critics a pleasant surprise with his sensitive performance in this 1998 comedy-drama, which rings even truer in these reality-TV-crazed days. He plays a man who doesn't realize he's starring in his own TV show. His hometown is a set, his friends and loved ones are actors, and everything in his life has been engineered to keep him on camera. Natascha McElhone and Ed Harris also star.

8 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

Jake in Progress

John Stamos ("Full House") stars in this new sitcom as Jake Phillips, a publicist charged with keeping his celebrity clients on the "famous" rather than "infamous" side of the ledger. Wendie Malick ("Just Shoot Me") plays Jake's boss, who doesn't relate to people very well for someone in public relations. Ian Gomez and Rick Hoffman also star in the series, which is getting a one-night preview here before moving to Thursdays.

8 p.m. on 4-CBS

Movie: Saving Milly

Bruce Greenwood ("Being Julia") stars as political journalist Morton Kondracke in his new fact-based drama. Milly (Madeleine Stowe) is Kondracke's brash, passionate activist wife. The couple's stormy but loving marriage is forever changed—along with Morton's priorities—when Milly gets Parkinson's disease. Dan Curtis ("The Love Letter") directed the film.

8:30 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

Kelsey Grammer Presents: The Sketch Show

This new series, based on a British hit, is a "Rowan & Martin's Laugh-In" for the MTV generation. Like "Laugh-In," it's jam-packed with gags, puns, one-liners and vignettes, but faster-paced. The cast includes Kallin Olson ("The Drew Carey Show"), Mary Lynn Rajskub ("Helter Skelter"), Paul F. Tompkins ("Anchorman: The Legend of Ron Burgundy"), Malcolm Barrett ("The Forgotten") and, from the British version, Lee Mack.

9 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Crossing Jordan

Two deaths at the airport have the authorities wondering if a killer virus hitched a ride on an international flight. Garrett (Miguel Ferrer) determines that both victims—a passenger and a baggage handler—died of drug overdoses. Woody (Jerry O'Connell) thinks the deaths are related and possibly linked to a smuggling ring. Jordan (Jill Hennessy) suspects an elderly man's death was an assisted suicide—in the new episode, "Gray Murders."

Monday Best Bets

7:30 p.m. on 4-CBS
Listen Up

Mickey (Will Rothhaar) loses interest in school and golf, and Tony (Jason Alexander) fears he's doing dope, especially after learning the kids recently found his long-forgotten stash from the '70s. The real reason, however, is that Mickey is jealous of the attention Megan (Daniella Monet) is getting for scoring the winning goal in the soccer championship. Olympic soccer star Brandi Chastain guest stars in "Mickey Without a Cause."

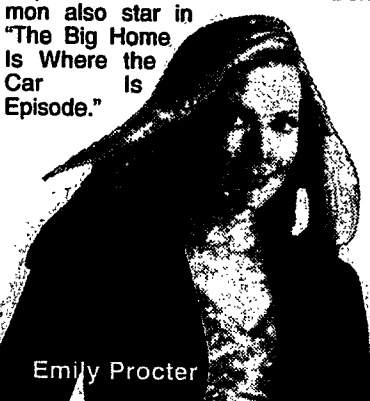

8 p.m. on 38-WB
Summerland

Ava (Lori Loughlin) allows Bradin (Jesse McCartney) to get back on the surf team, but she regrets that decision when he starts skipping tutoring sessions, and letting his grades drop. Jay (Ryan Kwanten) tries to help Ava understand how much surfing means to Bradin, but he only succeeds in making her angry at him. Mona and Johnny (Carmen Electra, Shawn Christian) have a confrontation over his feelings for Ava in the new episode "Sledgehammer."

8:30 p.m. on 54-UPN
Half & Half

Mona (Rachel True) has trouble moving forward in her newest romantic relationship when she finds out the man is homeless and living in his car. A health scare leads to a cease-fire in Phyllis and Big Dee Dee's (Telma Hopkins, Valerie Pettiford) stormy relationship. Essence Atkins and Chico Benymon also star in "The Big Home Is Where the Car Is Episode."

9 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC
Supernanny

In "Jeans Family," nanny-with-the-mostest Jo Frost works with a Denver household ruled by a 4 1/2-year-old. Little Andra's hitting, kicking, biting and tantrum throwing are driving parents David and Barbara crazy and rubbing off on her 3-year-old twin sisters. Frost uses the timeout method, or as she calls it, the "naughty stool." The offender is stuck there until she apologizes — nicely — to whomever she inflicted her temper upon.

9 p.m. on 4-CBS
CSI: Miami

In "Speed Kills," a man (guest star Mark Devine) is murdered after a speed-dating session, and the CSI team suspects one of the women he encountered that night — someone he'd dated before — did the deed. She admits to vandalizing his car but denies killing him. The discovery that the dead man was a witness to an assault then leads investigators down another road. David Caruso and Emily Procter star.

Tuesday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 54-UPN

All of Us

While coaching Bobby's (Khamani Griffin) basketball team, Robert (Duane Martin) is heckled by another player's obnoxious father. He's dying to put the man in his place, but he also wants to teach Bobby something about good sportsmanship, so this is a tough one. Jonelle (Terri J. Vaughn) gets upset with Dirk (Tony Rock) when she learns he was planning to make a big purchase without consulting her in "The Return of Mars Blackmon."

7:30 p.m. on 54-UPN

Eve

J.T. and Shelly (Jason George, Eve) have agreed to see other people, but J.T. has cause to regret that decision when he sees the new guy in Shelly's life: a hunky boxer named Adrian (guest star Amaury Nolasco, "Mr. 3000"). Shelly tries to make peace between bickering roommates Rita and Janie (Ali Landry, Natalie Desselle-Reid) so Rita doesn't end up moving in with her. Brian Hooks also stars in "Love TKO."

8 p.m. and BRAV

Project Greenlight

The behind-the-scenes series about first-time filmmakers moves from HBO to basic cable for its third season. This time around, the genre is horror, and Wes Craven of "Scream" and "A Nightmare on Elm Street" fame is the producer. The show follows director John Gulager, writers Patrick Melton and Marcus Dunstan, and their cast and crew over nine episodes as they bring their scare-fest, called "Feast," to the screen.

7:30 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

George Lopez

When Carmen's (Masiela Lusha) school bars her from returning, Angie (Constance Marie), who's just been laid off from her job, decides to take over her schooling. The close quarters, however, soon take their toll on the mother-daughter relationship, and the loss of Angie's income forces some plans to change. George Lopez and Luis Armand Garcia also star in "Home Sweet Homeschool."

8 p.m. on 54-UPN

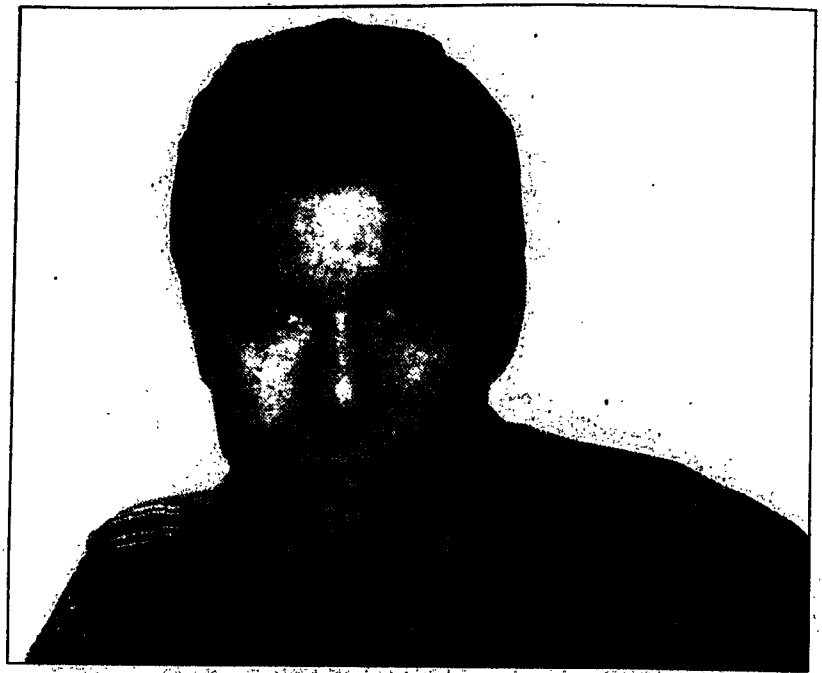

Veronica Mars

In "Silence of the Lamb," Veronica (Kristen Bell) has new questions about her parentage after discovering that her schoolmate Mac (guest star Tina Majorino) was switched at birth with another child. When the return of a serial killer forces a reluctant alliance between Sheriff Lamb and Keith (Michael Muhney, Enrico Colantoni), Veronica chats up a handsome young deputy in hopes of learning more about Lilly's murder.

8:30 p.m. on 6-NBC

Committed

In the season finale "The Perfect Person Episode, Part II," Nate (Josh Cooke) wakes up in a strange bed — Natalie's. Since he was drunk the night before, he can't remember what, if anything, happened, but he immediately rushes to Marnie's (Jennifer Finnigan) side to tell her that nothing did. Tess (Tammy Lynn Michaels) receives an unusual request from the boy (guest star Evan Sapara) whom she's baby-sitting.

Will (Eric McCormack) reluctantly agrees to let his friends throw him a birthday party in "Will & Grace" Tuesday on NBC.

Lost

As a rising tide threatens the fuselage and the beach, Jack, Sawyer and Kate (Matthew Fox, Josh Holloway, Evangeline Lilly) squabble over ownership of a metal briefcase they've just found. Kate, in particular, has a vested interest in the item, as it may give the others some clues to her past. Claire's disappearance draws Charlie and Rose (Dominic Monaghan, L. Scott Caldwell) closer in "Whatever the Case May Be."

8 p.m. on 6-NBC
The West Wing

Amid rampant speculation about the future of U.S.-Cuban relations, it's decision time for President Bartlet (Martin Sheen). He favors lifting the 40-year-old trade embargo on the United States' Communist neighbor and has been in secret talks with its leader about that but the political fall-out from such a move: would be huge. Leo and Kate (Jon Spencer, Mary McCormack) discover a past connection in the new episode "Ninety Miles Away."

8 p.m. on 54-UPN

Kevin Hill

George (Patrick Breen) tries to stop a gay bashing by going after the basher and ends up arrested for assault. Kevin and Jessie (Taye Diggs, Michael Michele) handle his defense. Little Sarah is rushed to the hospital, forcing an early end to Kevin's date with Evelyn (Lisa Marcos). Dame and Veronica (Jon Seda, Kate Levering) have trouble staying away from each other in "The Unexpected."

"Classic" doesn't necessarily mean "old," at least when it comes to the classic-TV channel's awards show. Series as recently departed as "Friends," "Frasier" and "Six Feet Under," and even the still-going-strong "Law & Order" and "Will & Grace," are represented in the Viewer's Choice categories, which include king/queen of the comeback, best dream sequence and favorite nosy neighbor.

Jeff Foxworthy: The Early Daze

This hourlong special is classic Jeff Foxworthy. It combines two of his early stand-up specials: "You Might Be a Redneck If ..." and "Check Your Neck." You don't have to be a blue-collar Southerner to appreciate Foxworthy's bits, which cover such issues as single life, married life and just plain life.

7 p.m. on 6-NBC

Will & Grace

Jack (Sean Hayes) talks Will (Eric McCormack) into buying a vacation home in what he's heard is the up-and-coming new gay get-away spot. After the deal is done, they discover that they've actually bought digs in a blue-collar town that's a good two hours from the hot spot. Karen (Megan Mullally) takes Grace's (Debra Messing) friend Ellen (guest star Leigh-Allyn Baker) out carousing to help her forget her marital troubles in the new episode "Sour Balls."

7:30 p.m. on 6-NBC

Will & Grace

Grace starts attending Alcoholics Anonymous meetings with ulterior motives in "One Gay at a Time." She goes for the free therapy and the doughnuts, but her unexpected encounter with Val (returning guest star Molly Shannon) may expose Grace's game. Participating in a TV focus group gets Will (Eric McCormack) ejected — and Jack (Sean Hayes) hired by the network.

8 p.m. on 6-NBC

The Apprentice

At this writing, the would-be Trump employees had run Burger

Kings, attempted a motel makeover, and peddled instant coffee and body wash. Tonight, the reality series takes a coffee break and showcases the highlights and lowlights of the season to date in this new "Clip Show." We don't know what the producers have chosen to include, but if they left out Danny's over-the-top reaction to his dismissal, they should be fired.

The Bernie Mac Show

Paul Levesque, better known as pro wrestler Triple H, guest stars in the new episode "The Big Picture" as the target of a series of prank phone calls. The prankster is Jordan (Jeremy Suarez), who's been careful to conceal his identity, but when Bernie (Bernie Mac) outs him, he's in big trouble. Kellita Smith and Camille Winbush also star.

7 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

8 Simple Rules

The sudden differences in Cate (Katey Sagal), including her hairstyle and her purchase of a new bed, make her children wonder what she's thinking in "Changes." Bridget (Kaley Cuoco) is astonished by the news of Kerry's (Amy Davidson) summer fling in Europe. Already upset over failing to win his wife back, Jim (James Garner) is even more upset to learn C.J. (David Spade) is at fault.

7 p.m. on 38-WB

What I Like About You

Holly (Amanda Bynes) gets a new job and some mixed messages from her boss (guest star Christine Dunford) in "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying to Be a Lesbian." Val's (Jennie Garth) friends take her to a club to cheer her up, and she meets another woman (guest star Jenny McCarthy) with troubles of her own.

7 p.m. on 54-LIPN

Star Trek: Enterprise

Back in the company of his crew, Archer (Scott Bakula) initiates a mission to destroy an alien time machine and rescue 1940s New York from Nazi captors in the conclusion of the two-part episode "Storm Front." Two resistance fighters (guest stars Golden Brooks and Steven R. Schripa) join the effort. An enemy (guest star Jack Gwaltney) wants to side with Archer, but a third party (guest star John Fleck) interferes.

7 p.m. and TNT

Movie: We Were Soldiers

The first major Vietnam War battle to test U.S. soldiers — specifically, Lt. Col. Harold Moore and his men — is recalled in this vivid and true 2002 drama, directed by "Braveheart" writer Randall Wallace. Based on a book co-written by Moore, the story finds him and his troops surrounded by the enemy. Mel Gibson plays Moore. Greg Kinnear, Sam Elliott, Madeleine Stowe, Chris Klein and Keri Russell co-star.

8 p.m. on 38-WB

Beha

Reba (Reba McEntire) is disturbed to learn that the despondent Varner (Steve Howey) has hired a nanny (guest star Lupe Ontiveros) — not because he needs the help, but because he wants more time to goof off. A lonely Barbara Jean (Melissa Peterman) acquires a dog and names her after Brock (Christopher Rich). JoAnna Garcia also stars in "Reba and the Nanny."

8:30 p.m. on 26-ABC on 12-ABC

Less Than Perfect

Exhausted from listening to Lydia (Andrea Parker) as she maps out every detail of their wedding, Jeb (Patrick Warburton) pays Claude (Sara Rue) to take over for him in "ignoring Lydia." Unaware of the arrangement, Lydia thinks she and Claude actually are becoming closer. Will (Eric Roberts) revives his romance with his book's publicist (guest star Lucy Lawless).

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Law & Order: Trial by Jury

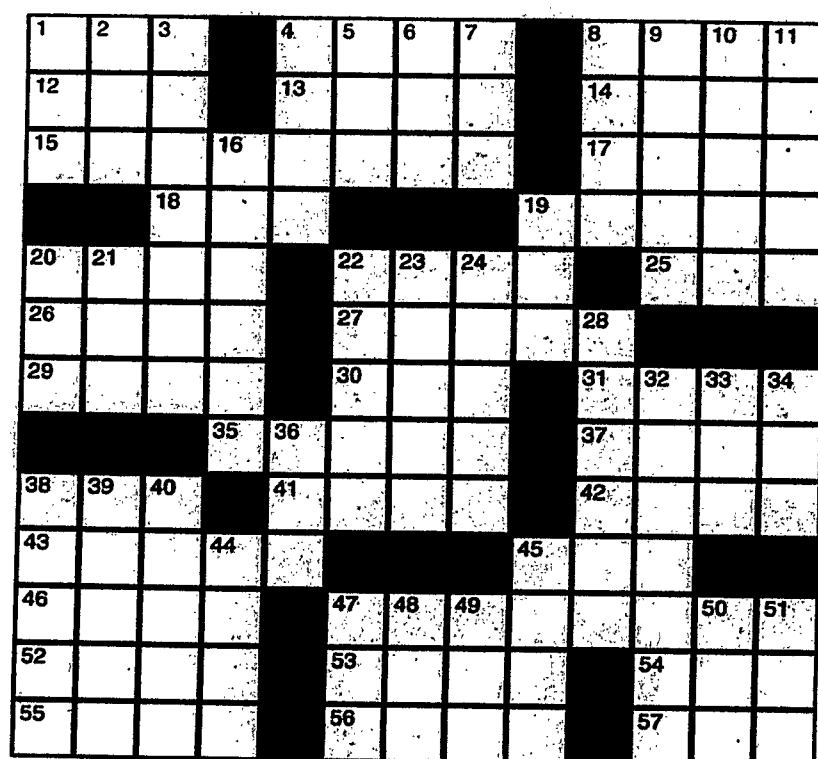

Kibre and Gaffney (Bebe Neuwirth, Amy Carlson) have three suspects in a young woman's rape and murder, one of whom is her ex-boyfriend (guest star Ebon Moss-Bachrach). They try to get at the truth by playing the three against one another, and the ex appears to be the most truthful of the three, prompting Kibre to consider a deal. Warren Blosjo and Adam LaVorgna also guest star in the new episode "Truth or Consequences."

In Focus

While Jeff Foxworthy has had success with his latest series, "Blue Collar TV," it wouldn't have come to pass without him first being a big draw on the live-performance circuit. Enter the new WB Network special "Jeff Foxworthy: The Early Daze" Thursday, March 17.

What has long served as the comedian's trademark line, "You might be a redneck if..." is all but certain to surface more than once as the hour revisits and compiles two of Foxworthy's earliest television showcases.

When skaters do their thing to music, the singers aren't always present. But that isn't the case with the new "Great Performances" offering "Andrea Bocelli: Tribute on Ice" Wednesday, March 16, on PBS.

The internationally celebrated tenor is joined by Mario Reyes of the group the Gipsy Kings and young vocalist Holly Steel in providing melodic accompaniment for the skating skills of Brian Botano, Ekaterina Gordeeva, Brian Orser and others.

Figure Skating

A new cumulative points system and a veteran U.S. champion line the women's long program at the World Figure Skating Championships held in Russia for the first time in 1903. Michelle Kwan skates for the sixth world title, but reigning champion Shizuka Arakawa of Japan, Sasha Cohen and hometown favorite Irina Slutskova are also in the mix.

Nina Foch

Slutskaya present a formidable opposition. Cohen won silver last year, while Kwan placed third.

Movie: The Ten Commandments

Charlton Heston, Yul Brynner, Edward G. Robinson and Anne Baxter star in director Cecil B. DeMille's final film, the Oscar-winning 1956 biblical epic about the life of Moses. The movie's first-rate visual effects include the parting of the Red Sea. Yvonne De Carlo, Nina Foch, John Derek and Vincent Price co-star, with little Fraser Heston as the infant Moses.

Movie: Rocky III

Movie: Rocky III

Sylvester Stallone already had seemed to milk the basic "Rocky" formula thoroughly by the time he made this 1982 sequel. Although it's predictable, it's also vastly entertaining — made particularly so by Mr. T's screen debut as Rocky's ferocious new opponent, Clubber Lang. Carl Weathers, Talia Shire and Burgess Meredith also return from the first two films.

7:30 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

Cope

"Tazed and Confused, Special Edition" spotlights incidents in which police resorted to tasers and stun guns to subdue suspects. In one memorable clip, an Ohio police officer zaps a man who is uncooperative and hostile during a routine traffic stop. Although jolted, the man is still able to drive — and he does, leading police on a dangerous chase.

8 p.m. on HALL

Movie: The Outsider

A Quaker widow (Naomi Watts) has a forbidden relationship with a wounded gunslinger (Tim Daly, "Wings") in this 2002 Western. She allows him to recuperate at her home, prompting members of her community to criticize her. Once others learn just how close they've become, they insist she end their relationship. Director Randa Haines' ("Children of a Lesser God") cast also includes siblings Keith and David Carradine.
